	ACCESS TO HEARINGS	RJPP 27
22.01	PUBLIC ACCESS TO HEARINGS
	A. PRESUMPTION OF PUBLIC ACCESS TO HEARINGS. Absent a finding of "exceptional circumstances," hearings in juvenile protection matters are presumed to be accessible to the public. RJPP 27.01 supersedes Minn. Stat. § 260C.163, subd. 1(c), which provides that the court shall exclude the general public from hearings in juvenile protection matters and shall admit only those persons who have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court.	RJPP 27.01
	B. CLOSURE ONLY IF EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCE FOUND. The court may, on its own initiative or on request of any party or counsel, order that a hearing, or portion of a hearing, be closed to the public only if the court finds that an "exceptional circumstance" exists.	RJPP 27.01
	Comment "Exceptional Circumstance" Standard: The Supreme Court chose not to define "exceptional circumstances." Currently, no case law on the issue exists. However, as a guide, an exceptional circumstance generally requires a finding of an overriding interest or substantial likelihood of harm to the child. The court may order closure if it finds that there is a substantial likelihood that an open hearing would interfere with the best interests of the child, after balancing the public's interest in access to the courts and the right of a fair and public hearing. Any closure shall be no broader than is necessary to protect the overriding interests involved. The court shall also consider if there is any reasonable alternative to closing the hearing.
	If a motion is made to close a hearing or portion of a hearing, the motion may be heard in camera. If the court determines that there is no overriding interest or substantial likelihood of harm to the child to justify excluding the public from the hearing, the hearing shall continue in open court on the record. Upon request of a party, the in camera proceeding shall be transcribed and filed with the court administrator within a reasonable time.	Best practice, not specified in Rule
	C. CLOSURE ORDER ACCESSIBLE TO PUBLIC. The closure of any hearing shall be noted on the record and the reasons for the closure given. Any oral order closing a hearing shall be reduced to writing. An order closing a hearing or portion of a hearing to the public shall be accessible to the public.	<ul> <li>RJPP 27.01</li> <li>RJPP 10.01 (oral orders on the record must be reduced to writing)</li> </ul>
	D. CLOSURE DOES NOT BAR HEARING. Closure of all or part of a hearing shall not prevent the court from proceeding with the hearing or issuing a decision.	RJPP 27.01

Procedure

22.02 PARTY AND PARTICIPANT ATTENDANCE AT HEARINGS

A. PARTIES AND PARTICIPANTS HAVE RIGHT TO ATTEND HEARINGS. Notwithstanding the closure of a hearing to the public, any party who is entitled to summons or any participant who is entitled to notice of a hearing, or any person who is summoned or given notice, shall have the right to attend the hearing to which the summons or notice relates unless excluded.

Comment: Pursuant to RJPP 21, a party has the right to be present in person at any hearing. For a child, the person with physical custody of the child should generally be responsible for ensuring the child's presence in court. When a child is in emergency protective care or protective care, the responsible social services agency is responsible for ensuring the child's presence in court. If the child is in the custody of the responsible social services agency in out-of-home placement, the agency should transport the child to the hearing. If the agency fails to make arrangements for the child to attend the hearing, the child's attorney or guardian ad litem may need to ask for a continuance and for an order requiring the child to be brought to the next hearing.

- B. ABSENCE DOES NOT BAR HEARING. Absence from a hearing by any party or participant shall not prevent the hearing from proceeding provided appropriate notice has been served.
- C. EXCLUSION OF PARTIES OR PARTICIPANTS FROM HEARINGS.
  The court may exclude from any hearing any party or participant, other than a guardian ad litem or counsel for any party or participant, only if it is in the best interests of the child to do so or the person engages in conduct that disrupts the court. The exclusion of any party or participant from a hearing shall be noted on the record and the reason for the exclusion given. The order must be reduced to writing.

	ACCESS TO COURT RECORDS
22.03	ACCESS TO RECORDS BY PARTIES  All juvenile protection case records relating to juvenile protection matters, as those terms are defined in RJPP 2.01(k) <sup>1</sup> , are presumed to be accessible to any party for inspection and copying, except for:  1. Audio tapes or video tapes of a child alleging or describing physical abuse, sexual abuse, or neglect of any child.  2. Portions of juvenile protection case records that identify reporters of abuse or neglect.  3. HIV test results, including any written motion and supporting data seeking HIV testing.	RJPP 8.01  Minn. Stat. § 611A.19, subd. 2 (data regarding results of HIV test shall not be maintained in any record of the court)
22.04	ACCESS TO RECORDS BY PARTICIPANTS OR MEMBERS OF PUBLIC  A. PRESUMPTION OF ACCESS TO RECORDS. Except as otherwise provided in section 22.04(F) below, all juvenile protection case records relating to juvenile protection matters, as those terms are defined in RJPP 2.01(k) <sup>2</sup> , are presumed to	RJPP 8.01

В.	ORDER ACCESSIBLE TO PUBLIC. An order prohibiting access to the court file, or any record in such file, shall be accessible to the public.	RJPP 8.01
C.	EFFECTIVE DATE. The presumption of public access to records is effective as follows:	RJPP 8.01
	1. Open Hearings Pilot Project Counties. All juvenile protection case records deemed to be accessible to the public pursuant to this rule and filed in any of the twelve open hearings pilot project counties on or after June 28, 1998, shall be accessible to the public for inspection and copying. All juvenile protection case records deemed to be accessible to the public pursuant to this rule and filed in any of the twelve open hearings pilot project counties before June 28, 1998, shall not be accessible to the public for inspection and copying.	RJPP 8.02, subd. 1
	2. Non-Open Hearings Pilot Project Counties. All juvenile protection case records deemed to be accessible to the public pursuant to this rule and filed in any non-open hearings pilot project county on or after July 1, 2002, shall be accessible to the public for inspection and copying. All juvenile protection case records deemed to be accessible to the public pursuant to this rule and filed in any non-open hearings pilot project county before July 1, 2002, shall not be accessible to the public for inspection and copying.	RJPP 8.02, subd. 2
pi Ci	omment: Twelve counties participated in the open hearings lot project from June 28, 1998, through June 30, 2002: hisago, Clay, Goodhue, Hennepin, Houston, LeSueur; Marshall, ennington, Red Lake, Stevens, St. Louis—Virginia; Watonwan.
D.	APPLICABILITY OF RULES OF PUBLIC ACCESS TO RECORDS OF THE JUDICIAL BRANCH. Except where inconsistent with this rule, the Rules of Public Access to Records of the Judicial Branch promulgated by the Minnesota Supreme Court shall apply to juvenile protection case records relating to juvenile protection matters. 	Comment: While medical records, psychological evaluations, treatment reports, and similar records are inaccessible to the public, verbatim quotations or summaries of information from such records included in social worker and guardian ad litem reports are accessible to the public and do not need to be redacted.	RJPP 8.04, Committee Comment
22.05	ACCESS TO EXHIBITS
22.03	Case records received into evidence as exhibits shall be accessible to the public unless subject to a protective order issued pursuant to RJPP 8.07.	<ul><li>RJPP 8.05</li><li>RJPP 8.07</li><li>(authorizes protective orders)</li></ul>
	Comment: An exhibit that has been offered, but not expressly admitted into evidence by the court, does not become accessible to the public under RJPP 8.05. Exhibits admitted during a trial or hearing are distinguished from reports or records attached as exhibits to a petition or a report of a social worker or guardian ad litem. Merely attaching a document as an "exhibit" to social worker or GAL report or another filed document does not render such "exhibit" to be accessible to the public under RJPP 8.05.
22.06	NO PUBLIC ACCESS TO ELECTRONIC COURT	RJPP 8.06
22.00	INFORMATION SYSTEM  Except where authorized by the district court or court rule, there shall be no direct public access to juvenile protection case records maintained in electronic format in court information systems such as TCIS or MNCIS terminals that are accessible to the public.	NJFF 0.00
	Comment: So as to preclude widespread distribution of case records and information about children into larger, private databases that could be used to discriminate against children for insurance, employment, and other purposes, RJPP 8.06 intentionally limits access to records, documents, or information stored by courts in electronic formats such as TCIS or MNCIS. This concern about inappropriate use of juvenile protection file data also led the Court to decide that case titles in the petition and other documents are to include only the name of the parent or legal custodian, and exclude the name or initial of the child(ren) (see RJPP 8.08). RJPP 8.06 allows the courts to prepare calendars	RJPP 8.06, Committee Comment that identify cases by the appropriate caption. To the extent that court information systems can provide appropriate "electronic formats for public access" (such as a TCIS or MNCI S terminal available for public use in a courthouse), RJPP 8.06 allows the district court to make those accessible to the public.

22.07	A. ORDERS REGARDING PUBLIC ACCESS. The court may sua sponte, or upon motion and hearing, issue an order prohibiting public access to juvenile protection case records that are otherwise accessible to the public only if the court finds that an exceptional circumstance exists. The protective order shall state the reason for issuance of the order. If the court issues a protective order on its own motion and without a hearing, the court shall schedule a hearing on the order as soon as possible at the request of any person. A protective order is accessible to the public.	RJPP 8.07, subd. 1
	B. ORDERS REGARDING PARTY ACCESS. The court may sua sponte, or upon motion and hearing, issue a protective order prohibiting a party's access to juvenile protection case records that are otherwise accessible to the party. The protective order shall state the reason for issuance of the order. If the court issues a protective order on its own motion and without a hearing the court shall schedule a hearing on the order as soon as possible at the request of any person. A protective order is accessible to the public.	RJPP 8.07, subd. 2
	Comment: If a motion for a protective order is filed, the motion may be heard in camera. If the court determines that there is no overriding interest or substantial likelihood of harm to the child to justify the protective order, the record shall remain accessible. Upon request of a party, the in camera proceeding shall be transcribed and filed with the court administrator within a reasonable time.	Best practice, not in court rule
	C. ORDER PROHIBITING ATTORNEY FROM SHARING RECORDS WITH CLIENT. The court may issue a protective order to prohibit an attorney from sharing a specific record or portion of a record with a client other than a guardian ad litem.	Minn. Stat. § 260C.171, subd. 3
